ABOUT THE BLACK FUTURES POLICY INSTITUTE

Black Futures Lab works to make Black communities powerful in politics. The problems Black communities face are complex; the solutions to those problems require imagination, experimentation, and Black political power.

Black Futures Lab designs strategies that help us imagine the alternatives we deserve and builds the capacity of Black serving organizations to build Black political power; the Black to the Future Action Fund builds electoral power at the local and state level to implement those alternatives. Applicants from CA, GA, IL, LA, NC, and WI are highly encouraged to apply. Other states will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Black Futures Policy Institute (the Institute) is a program of Black Futures Lab. The Institute is a policy advocacy and leadership training fellowship that provides community leaders the tools needed to transform Black communities into constituencies that wield independent, Black political power.

We work to enact policies that improve the lives of Black people and ensure that Black people have what all people deserve—dignity, safety, and power. We work to ensure that governance in our communities is race-forward, guided by the orientation that our government is responsible for addressing the challenges in our communities. We believe in advocating for the solutions that are progressive solutions that move our communities forward.

WE ARE CELEBRATING THE SIXTH YEAR OF THE INSTITUTE.

We are launching the sixth year of the Black Futures Policy Institute! Over 120 alumni across 21 states and Washington, D.C have completed the program to date and are making significant strides to advance local and state policies that center Black communities. Fellows in our network are fighting for housing reform and voting rights for all incarcerated persons, changing sentencing guidelines for human trafficking and domestic violence survivors, and redefining public safety by uplifting the leadership of the most impacted.

Most recently, Institute alumni passed major legislation in New Mexico, California, and New York.

Alumni Success & Impact

The One Albuquerque Fund (New Mexico) - In April 2025, Governor Lujan Grisham signed HB281 into law, which exempts hair braiders and locticians from requiring a cosmetology license and prohibits disciplinary action for hair braiding due to being unlicensed.

Young Women's Freedom Center (California) - In October 2024, Governor Newsom signed AB2740 into law, which provides incarcerated pregnant persons access social workers to discuss parenting guidance, additional meals for prenatal care, extended medical stay and pumping and storage stations.

Hudson Catskill Housing Coalition (New York) - In 2023, Governor Hochul signed the Clean Slate Act (S.7551A/A.1029C), which seals certain criminal records and allows individuals to seek employment, housing, and educational opportunities so they can improve their lives.

You can join our Black Futures Policy Institute by submitting an application online today from June 8 - July 13, 2026.

Fellow Spotlight: Dominique Grant, Georgia

"The program helped me see that there is no single path to legislative impact. It reinforced that radical imagination and strategic policy work go hand in hand—pushing us to envision a future beyond oppression while taking concrete steps to make it real."

Fellow Spotlight: Asia Rush, Mississippi

"My understanding of policy has completely shifted. I now know and believe that you don't need years of experience to make a real impact. Policy is about people, power, and persistence. It's not just about writing legislation; it's about building something that reflects your community's needs and values."

BLACK FUTURES POLICY INSTITUTE GOALS

TRANSFORM

Black communities into constituencies that wield independent political power.

CREATE

a network of Black policy makers across the United States.

IMPROVE

the lives of Black people.

Institute Policy Areas: The Institute focuses on the following policy areas that directly impact Black communities:

Democracy/Voting Rights: confronting those who conspire to steal our votes, protecting and building the democracy that is promised to us all.

Families/Public Health and Healthcare: challenging the policies and practices that leave us living sick and dying younger, protecting and delivering the care that we need to live long and live well.

Economy/Economic Security: removing policies that lock us out of good jobs and investing in the health and wealth of our communities.

Structural Barriers: procedural fixes that if achieved could increase Black political or policy power.

Criminal/Legal: transforming our current criminal legal and policing system.

INSTITUTE TRAININGS

Fellows in the Institute will learn to build a policy campaign from the ground up. During the Institute, fellows develop their policy making skills including building and leveraging power within the policy process and increasing confidence to lead policy efforts. Each session is taught by top Black policymakers and thinkers in their fields. The content-rich sessions are taught in community—fellows learn and question together.

Throughout a rigorous curriculum, fellows will:

- Gain a deep understanding of the legislative process at the state and municipal level (including key timelines, the budget process, and identifying structural barriers that impede successful policy making).
- Engage in research through a community and policy lens to develop and strengthen their policy ideas.
- Develop the skills to build a policy campaign (engaging in power analysis, identifying targets, allies and opposition, strategic communication, and more).
- Explore target BFL issue areas in relation to their effects on Black communities—such as Democracy and Voting, the Economy, Public Health, Structural Barriers, and the Criminal-Legal System.
- Discover strategies from alumni policy campaigns and learn diverse approaches to tackling policy issues across states.
- Learn from some of the most influential policy minds in Black communities.

How is the Institute structured?

Webinars are 1 hour and 45 minutes in length. Webinars will take place 1:00-2:45pm ET/10:00-11:45am PT each Tuesday starting on September 15, 2026 and ending on April 26, 2027.

→ Webinars are “camera on” unless there are extenuating circumstances that are cleared by the Institute in advance.

→ Trainings are led by Institute staff, national policy experts, and guest trainers.

→ Reading and homework will be assigned in advance of each webinar.

→ Participants are expected to work with their teams and Sponsoring Organizations to create a policy advocacy campaign of their choosing, that can be initiated in 2025.

→ Each team will be provided with a mentor, who will act as a strategic advisor for the campaign and offer practical guidance and technical assistance.

APPLICATION ELIGIBILITY

The Institute is specifically for members of Black communities who are already involved in organized efforts to improve the lives of Black people.

- ↳ Black cisgender and transgender individuals, non-binary, and genderqueer people are encouraged to apply. Black migrants, formerly incarcerated, and people with disabilities are also encouraged to apply.

Sponsoring Organizations are responsible for the team's participation in the Institute.
- Sponsoring Organizations must have a demonstrated commitment to impacting public policy to support and uplift Black communities.

Failure to actively participate and fulfill the requirements of the MOU may result in fellows being asked to leave the fellowship.

NOTE: If your Sponsoring Organization has a fiscal sponsor, that fiscal sponsor will receive the stipend on behalf of the Sponsoring Organization. The fiscal sponsor will be responsible for payment disbursement. It is required that all teams apply with the support of a Sponsoring Organization. Fiscal sponsors typically provide fiduciary oversight, financial management, and other administrative services to support an organization's mission and activities.
